Marco Berti

Born in Como, Marco is a tenor of great vocal and interpretative capabilities, who represents the classic expression of the “Italian voice”. Gifted with a silken, expressive voice with a full-bodied sound, he delivers smudge-free singing lines, which exalt the harmonic tones and the vocal register unique to the dramatic tenor.

Admirable and refined interpreter of the masterpieces of the Italian and French repertoire, he is the ideal singer for the great roles written by Puccini, Verdi, Bizet, Leoncavallo, Mascagni and Giordano.

His passionate interpretations brought many opera characters back to the stage in the world’s most important theatres, such as Covent Garden in London, Met in New York, Teatro alla Scala in Milan, Opéra in Paris, Staatsoper in Munich and New National Theatre in Tokyo.
